KEYS TO SUCCESS

HIGH LEVEL TIPS FOR SUCCESS

A successful fundraiser requires careful planning and organization. Here are a few high-level tips to help you get started:

1. Set a goal. Determine how much money you want to raise, and create a timeline for when you want to reach that goal.
2. Be the first to contribute. Show your appreciation by leading the way with your own donation.
3. Build enthusiasm. Utilize social media and other outreach tools to generate excitement for your fundraiser and attract more people to it.
4. Reach out to potential donors. Use your networks, online resources, and other contacts to identify key individuals and organizations who may be interested in supporting your cause.
5. Make it personal. Take the time to thank each donor personally. Show the impact their donation has made, and how it has helped you reach your fundraising goals.

Following these tips can help ensure your fundraiser is successful!

The Power of Your Donations

- » A donation of $100 can provide two meals a day for 50 animals.
- » A donation of $500 will help to provide medical testing and behavioral evaluations for 7 animals at the time of their intake. The results of these medical tests and evaluations will help us better understand each animal's individual needs and provide more effective care.
- » A donation of $1,000 will enable 14 animals to be spayed and neutered. Spaying and neutering helps to control the population of animals in shelters and prevents overcrowding.

FUNDRAISING FOR KIDS

Fundraising can be a great way for kids to learn about philanthropy and how to make a difference in their community. By involving kids in nonprofit fundraising, you can help to foster an appreciation for giving back and encourage them to become involved in a cause they care about. Here are some ideas to get your kiddo started!

» Use the Power of Social Media!

Social media is an incredibly powerful tool for fundraising. When using social media to fundraise, it is important to establish a goal and make sure it is clear to the audience. By giving donors a clear idea of what the funds will be used for, it will help them to understand the purpose of the fundraising effort.

» Create a Change Jar!

Creating a change jar is a great way to fundraise. It's simple, easy, and requires minimal effort on your kiddo's part. Here's how to get started:

- Find a jar - You'll need a large, transparent jar so that people can see how much money is collecting. A mason jar or pickle jar works well for this.
- Decorate the jar - This is the fun part! Create a label for your jar that explains what the money is being used for and how people can contribute. You can also decorate the jar however you like with paint, markers, or stickers.
- Place the jar in a visible location - A kitchen counter, entryway table, or reception desk are all great places to display the jar.

» Write Letters!

Knowing who to write to is the first step in successful fundraising. When considering who to address your fundraising letter to, consider the following:

Potential donors can include family, friends, neighbors, or even strangers - like local businesses. Businesses in your area may be willing to contribute financially to your cause.

No matter who you choose to write your fundraising letter to, make sure to include all the necessary information. Make sure to explain why you are raising money, how the money will be used, and how it will benefit your cause. Additionally, make sure to thank the donor for their contribution.

The following are other ways your child can raise money for a good cause:

» Set Up a Lemonade Stand and/or Bake Sale

» Host a Car Wash

» Organize a Garage Sale

» Use Their Birthday to Collect Donations

» Sell Candy Grams

» Request a Donation Box

This option is just like creating your own change jar, but without the work! Email administrator@maxfund.org to request your own paw print wrapped donation box to display wherever you please - your kiddo's school, a baseball game, at a neighborhood party, etc. You will need to schedule a date and time to pickup your donation box from MaxFund Animal Adoption Center.
